PAW 2012 Workshops

The Missional Church: Ministry “Outside the Box”

Explore how basic models of mission—attractional and missional—can co-exist in today’s congregation.

Presbyterian Today

What in our tradition should we jettison, and what should we fight to preserve even if it’s not popular in this modern age? This is one of the questions we will wrestle with in this workshop, and then we will come up with strategies to implement our answers.

Worship: Welcoming, Worthy and Wise

Explore the basics of Reformed worship, and look at how we can worship God today with passion and purpose. Enrich your worship with music, prayer and Scripture.

Faith Basics

What does it mean to have a living faith in a troubled world? Explore the basics of faith with a three-part structure: God in creation, the story of Jesus, and the work of the Spirit in the individual and the church.

Roles and Responsibilities of Ruling Elders

Learn how to be the best elder you can be, and explore the basic role of the ruling elder within The Presbyterian Church in Canada, its congregations and its courts.

What is PAW?

PAW stands for Pre-Assembly Workshops. The Elders’ Institute was mandated by the 131st General Assembly to host a national leadership training event for ruling elders and congregational leaders before General Assembly each year (usually on the first Saturday in June). PAW offers a day of workshops on topics of interest to ruling elders led by leaders from across the country.

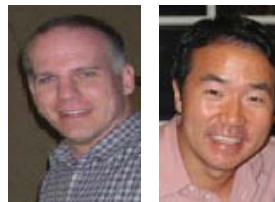

The workshops offer tools and strategies for new and seasoned elders alike, with a lineup of knowledgeable and gifted workshop and worship leaders. PAW is developed with the specific needs of ruling elders in mind, and everyone is welcome—ruling elders, lay leaders and teaching elders.

Lunchtime Speaker:

Charles Fensham
Christian Spirituality for an Emerging Church

Worship Leaders: Duncan Cameron

Paul Kang with Hilarter musicians
