

Elders' Corner

Elders, we seek your wisdom!

A Newcomer to the Church

An elder follows up with a newcomer at church as part of the congregation's welcome committee. The newcomer says, when he entered the building, the two greeters were in an animated conversation, disagreeing with a decision at a recent congregational meeting. Conflict was a big problem in the congregation he left, and he doesn't want to join another church with conflict.

Name: _____

Address: _____

Home Congregation: _____

Telephone: _____

Email Address: _____